A Report from Town Administrator Lisa Wong

State releases more infrastructure funding

Public Health

Reminder that COVID, the Flu, and RSV spread more in the fall and winter.

As you prepare travel plans and/or gathering with family, here are some tips to keep you and your loved ones healthier.

NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

KEEP UP WITH SOUTH HADLEY'S LATEST NEWS

Video Project Background: In 2022, the Town began a series of conversations with the South Hadley and Granby Chamber of Commerce about what resources are needed to support businesses affected by the pandemic. Marketing emerged as a top priority. The Chamber was awarded $50,000 in ARPA funding in 2022 to support projects.

Phase I: The first phase involved hiring a professional media company to create videos for the town. View the “Live a Little” videos online at www.shgchamber.com/new-page. The following local businesses participated in the video: The Thirsty Mind, The Yarde Tavern, Mt. Holyoke College, The Village Commons, The Tower Theaters, The Ledges Golf Club, Johnny's Tap Room, Brunelle's Marina, The Lady Bea, McCray's Farm

The video is meant to be shared widely and can be linked to social media and posted on business websites to promote economic development in the town.

Phase II: The second phase will invite businesses to apply to receive personalized marketing tools, including video commercials, and social media content support. The program will launch in early 2024 and the details will be shared by the Town and the Chamber.
