Senior opportunities

Senior Tax Work-off Program: The program applications are available in person at the Senior Center and online at www.southhadley.org/1396/Senior-Tax-Work-Off-Program

Senior Volunteers Needed: The Age Friendly South Hadley and the South Hadley Public Schools are seeking Senior Volunteers for an intergenerational project to bring seniors and students together for activities this spring. The volunteers will be invited to visit the schools for conversations and participate in activities.

- Plains and Mosier Elementary Schools - Visit during mid-day recesses to have discussions or play table games with students.
- Michael E Smith Middle School - Visit classrooms in the morning during the 25 minute community time and participate in meaningful conversations with students.
- South Hadley High School - Visit on a Career Day to share career or work experiences.

Training will be provided and scheduling arranged. A CORI background check will be required. For more information and to apply, please reach out to: Carol Constant, Age and Dementia Friendly South Hadley cpconstant@gmail.com or Courtney Mackey, District Mental Health Coordinator, SH Public Schools, cmmackey@shschools.com
