Assessing Award

Our very own and amazing Assessor Melissa Couture Rimbold has been awarded the Past Presidents Award by the Massachusetts Association of Assessing Officers. The association cited the following "For years, this individual has been a passionate and respected educator, sharing their expertise generously and consistently raising the bar for what professional education in our field should look like. As Education Chair, they brought unwavering attention to detail and a commitment to excellence that elevated every program under their guidance."

Regional discussions

Lisa Wong met with Northampton Mayor Gina-Louise Sciarra and Amherst Town Manager Paul Bockelman to discuss regional issues including working together to build more housing.
