The original filing of the above-referenced campaign finance report is being amended for the following reason(s):

The original filing inadvertently overstated the total receipts by $10.00 (ten dollars) and the total expenditures by $.40 (forty cents). These amounts had been reported to the campaign by a third-party service that processes campaign donations on line and they represented the amount of the donation less a fee charged by the third party. This third party remits funds electronically to the campaign's checking account. Upon subsequent comparison of the amounts reported by the third party and the campaign's bank statements, it was discovered that the proceeds of this donation had not been forwarded to the campaign. The campaign is in contact with the third-party service to rectify this matter.

The amended Summary Balance Information reported above correctly states the receipts, expenditures and ending balance for this reporting period.
